The Most Interesting Week In the History of "The White House"

WHILE new Fall arrivals hold the attention of many of our customers, we have made a drastic decision in regard to remaining Summer goods. The items presented tell you more forcibly than we can explain in words.

Our "Last Call" on the Summer season together with our incomparable display of approved Fall styles make the coming week one of the most interesting in the history of "The White House."

Extensive Display of Authoritative Fall Styles In Garments and Millinery

Never before have we shown so many new styles so early in the season. And never before, we think, have Fall styles been so attractive or so generally becoming. If you are planning an early Fall trip or if for any reason you desire Fall garments for immediate wear you will find it an easy matter to make satisfactory selections here.

Fall Tailored Suits

An inspection of our Fall tailored suits will show you that the three most pronounced fashion ideas are the long cutaway coat, the Japanese sleeve and the draped skirt. The favored materials are broche, peau de peche, velour de laine, honeycomb worsteds, duvetine, broadcloths, bayadere, Drecoll cloth, poplin, bengaline, bedfords, matelasse, serges and novelty suitings. The most fashionable colors for this Fall and Winter are mahogany, Copenhagen, leather, gray, navy, brown, black, wine and plum. There is also a great variety of fancy suitings in two-tone effects. Special mention is made of combination suits, in which we show several good models. Prices on Fall suits range $14.50, $19.50, $22.50, $25.00, $29.50 and up. At $25.00 we offer an especially good selection.

NOTE—In addition to regular sizes, we are showing a number of attractive models in misses' Fall Suits.

Fall Waists

We have already a large showing of Fall styles in lingerie waists. These are high neck models showing the new ideas in long sleeves, and are trimmed with lace and embroidery. Priced at 95c, $1.50, $1.75, $2.50 and $2.75.

In addition to lingerie waists, we are also showing a number of Fall models in lace and net waists. Special mention is made of lace and net waists offered at a special introductory price of $3.95.

Fall Skirts

We are showing a great variety of Fall models in separate skirts—both plain and draped effects. They come in plaids, honeycomb checks, bayadere, poplin, mannish skirtings, novelty bedfords, two-tone effects, etc. Priced at $3.95, $4.95, $6.75, $7.50 $9.95 and up.

Fall Millinery

Our display of between-season and Fall millinery is constantly being augmented by special shipments from Mr. Posener who is now in New York. We are showing many smart tailored models from Fisk, Castle, Phipps and other famous makers.

Silk Dresses For Fall

Our present showing of Fall silk dresses is exceptionally complete and interesting. It embraces crepe de Chine, crepe metecors, crinkle crepes, Canton crepe, charmeuse and many novelties. In both afternoon and evening dresses of silk the present vogue is for a dress with waist of fancy silk, cut velvet, chiffon or lace and draped skirt of plain color silk. We show many varieties of this type of dress. The most fashionable colors in silk dresses are Copenhagen, nigger brown, leather, rose, mahogany, telegram blue, navy, plum, wisteria, gray, reseau, golden brown, flame, tango, wine, turquoise blue, terra cotta, bronze green, paon blue and black. Prices range $14.50, $16.50, $17.50, $19.50, $22.50, $25.00 and up.

NOTE—We are showing many styles in misses' Silk Dresses. Especially attractive for misses are the dresses trimmed in plaid.

Fall Coats

The new Fall coats are very different from anything shown in previous seasons. They are three-quarter lengths. Many of them show the new Japanese sleeve. Our present showing of Fall coats embraces many novelties in the way of materials such as matelasse, novelty coatings, Persians, boucles, chinchillas, broadened velvets, zibelines, Ural lamb, etc. All prices.

Features in Week-End Herald Have No Equal in the Southwest

The Week-End Herald is full of BIG FEATURES every week—not once in awhile, but ALL THE TIME. They are not clipped from other papers and printed a week or so after their original appearance, but The Herald buys every one of its features outright and they are not published anywhere else before they appear in The Herald.

Frank Carpenter's travel letters, Rene Bache's interesting stories on the world's oddities, W. J. Burns's great detective stories are all controlled exclusively for the Southwest by The El Paso Herald, and appear exclusively in the Week-End edition.

The best sporting authorities in the country write for The Herald. W. W. Naughton, dean of all prize fight reviewers; James J. Corbett, former world's heavyweight champion; W. J. McBeth, baseball expert for the Hearst publications, all write exclusively for The Week-End Herald. Any other El Paso paper publishing articles by these writers, publishes them after they have been printed in The Herald. During the week, by special arrangement with the International News service, The Herald also has the services of Sam Crane and Damon Runyon, two more Hearst baseball experts.

Every day The Herald prints as much light reading matter—exclusive features—as many of the weekly comic publications. Walt Mason's poem, George Fitch's sketches of people and places, Abe Martin's philosophy, Opie's quaint sayings, Mutt's and Jeff's funny antics, and Scoop's cut ups constitute the highest class of humor in any American publication. The Herald PAYS FIVE TIMES MORE for its features than any other paper published in the Southwest.

The daily letters of Frederick Haskin, the daily series of Goops for the children, the daily contributions of Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Dorothy Dix, Beatrice Fairfax, Winnifred Black, Lillian Laferity, Grace Terhune Van de Water and Mabel Herbert Urner, are EXCLUSIVE FEATURES OF THE EL PASO HERALD IN THE SOUTHWEST.

It is not necessary to mention The Herald's weekly color comics. Everybody watches for them. They constitute the Hearst features, which are always the best in the world—The Katzenjammer Kids, Snookums, Happy Hooligan, Mr. Howson Lot and other comic classics.
If it's the BIG FEATURES you want, you get them in The El Paso Herald.
